YACHT SINKS IN HUDSON AND MAN DROWNS AFTER HAVEMEYER PARTY LANDS

Captain and Crew Rescued, but Barge Skipper Is Lost in Collision.

WOMAN AND BABY SAFE.
Tug Lifts Them from Wreck
—The Tourist, Sight-Seeing Boat, Goes to Bottom.

Robert Anderson, captain of a motor boat, was drowned in the Hudson off Alpine, N. J., in the early hours of this morning, after his boat had been rammed by the sightseeing yacht Tourist. The captain's wife and daughter were rescued from the water by the crew of the tug Ida M. Hedges, which had been towing the motor boat. The force of the collision made a big hole in the motor boat under the waterline. She turned on her side as she sank and her head of stove rolling out, she righted herself and floated again. Mrs. Anderson got to the deck from her cabin with the baby. She thought her husband must have been stunned or lamed by the shifting cargo before he sank.

The Tourist, which was stove in forward, was towed by Capt. Edward Deming, her commander. A few minutes later the Hedges rescued him, Miss Carlson, Engineer Nelson and the rest of her crew of seven from the awning, to which they were clinging, and took them into the Pease wharf in Yonkers. The finding of the dead body of a coastlines man on the New York Central tracks above Yonkers at daybreak today caused the police to believe there had been a second death following the wreck, the theory being that the man had swum to shore only to be killed by a train. Capt. Deming, however, accounted for all of his crew, and Mrs. Anderson saw her husband sink.

WILSON CONFIDENT MEDIATION WILL BE SUCCESSFUL

President Makes an Official Announcement and Minister Naon Backs Him Up.

MANY POINTS CLEARED.

Full Explanation of Wilson's Views Carried Back to Niagara Falls by Naon.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Following a conference with President Wilson to-day, the following statement was issued at the White House:

"Regarding the visit of Minister Naon, one of the mediators, all that the President cares to say is that there was a general discussion of the mediation situation and that the President is still hopeful that it will succeed."

On returning to Niagara Falls Minister Naon here to the mediators and the United States delegates. President Wilson's personal explanation of why the United States stands squarely on the position outlined in the recent note of the American delegates.

President Wilson is understood to have explained to Mr. Naon at great length why he is convinced that peace can come out of the Mexican trouble only by the establishment of a provisional government fully approved by the Constitutionalists, and why, in his opinion, a so-called "neutral" President would only prolong the bloodshed.

Early to-day Rafael Zubaran and Luis Cabrera, two of the Constitutionalist representatives here, were attempting to arrange telegraphic communication with Carranza, apparently to report on last night's conference between Cabrera and Mr.
Naon.

Naon on Way Back Says He Is Hopeful.

BUFFALO, June 20.—"I was never more confident than I am to-day of the ultimate success of mediation," said Dr. Romulo S. Naon, Minister from Argentina, when he arrived here at 12:30 o'clock after conferences in Washington with President Wilson and Secretary Bryan.

"I am confident," he added, "and optimistic, which I have always been, for, while I regard the difficulties which have been encountered as serious, there are always difficulties in mediation, and it is the duty of mediators always to find a way to overcome them so peace may be accomplished."

The Minister said he would consult with his colleagues to-night before making any announcement, and that there probably would be no full session of delegates and mediators until Monday. Dr. Naon said he had found that President Wilson and Secretary Bryan were anxious for one thing—the pacification of Mexico—and were ready to listen to further compromise suggestions out of which a solution might be found.

There is a strong probability, in the opinion of Dr. Naon, that by abandoning the discussion of types and individuals and going ahead on the other important points in the peace plan a man may be found who will satisfy at least the principles of both the American memorandum as well as that issued by the Huerta delegates.

Minister Naon mediated that the negotiations would be continued at least another two weeks.

Travis beaten by Sawyer.

WILMINGTON, Del., June 20.—Walter J. Travis, former national golf champion, was eliminated 1 up by D. E. Sawyer of the Wheaton Golf Club in the semi-final of the invitation tournament of the Wilmington Country Club today. Travis led on the first nine holes 2 up. On the home course Sawyer secured a win on every hole. Travis finished in 32 and Sawyer in 31.

ASQUITH REFUSES PANKHURST PLEA FOR VOTES BILL

Premier Tells Delegation of Women He Cannot Change
His Course at This Time.

SYLVIA WAS ABSENT.

Those Present Not Militant—Government Leader Raps
Methods of the "Furies."

LONDON, June 20.—Although for the first time Premier Asquith today received a deputation urging "votes for women" he refused to accede to their demands that he introduce a suffrage bill in Parliament.

The Premier received six East End working women at his official residence in Downing street, while outside a great crowd boomed and cheered them. George Lansbury, M. P., accompanied the women, but Sylvia Pankhurst, whose demand on the steps of the House of Commons Thursday forced the concession, did not attend the conference.

Asquith listened carefully and patiently while the women argued that woman suffrage would solve England's present distressing economic condition. At the end of their statements he said that he did not agree with their views and could not change the determination of the government to not introduce the suffrage bill "at this time."

The Premier welcomed the members of the deputation as representatives of "an association which dis-sociated itself from the criminal methods of those who have done so much to damage and put back the cause of woman."

Mr. Asquith argued that if every woman over twenty-one years of age possessed the vote they would still find legislative problems regarding women exceedingly difficult of solution in the same way as the men had found them. He agreed with the deputation that if the franchise were given to women it should be granted on the same terms as it was given to men.

The Premier explained that while it had become necessary to suppress the organized violence of the militant suffragettes, the Government had no desire to interfere with free speech or the proper organization of opinion.

Asquith promised the East End women that he would confer with Home Secretary McKenna on a request they made that Sylvia Pankhurst and Mrs. Walker be unconditionally released. He also promised careful consideration of claims by the women that forcible feeding was being practiced.

'FURIES' BURN RAILROAD STATION AND BUILDINGS

Also Put Torch to Train at Town in Wales—Leave Suffragette Literature at Ruins.

WREXHAM, Wales, June 20.—A band of "Furies" set fire to and destroyed the station and several adjoining buildings at Wrexham, near here, last night. An attempt also was made to set fire to a train.

Quantities of suffrage literature were found in the vicinity.

FAVORITE OF VILLA WHOM CARRANZA HAS OUSTED FROM OFFICE.

CARRANZA OUSTS VILLA'S FAVORITE FROM HIS CABINET

But Mexican Consul Says Villa Has Proclaimed Him
President.

SALTILLO, Mexico, June 19, via Laredo, Tex., June 20.—Gen. Felipe Angel, Acting Secretary of War of the Constitutionalists, was deposed from that position to-day by order of Gen. Carranza for disobedience of orders.

No further details of the action were made public beyond a statement that Angeles had received certain orders from Carranza and had failed to carry them out.

Gen. Angeles is general of artillery in Villa's army and a strong Villa partisan. His removal from the Cabinet reduces him to the rank of general. He is a graduate of Chapultepec Military Academy and has played a prominent part in Villa's campaigns.

It was stated that 50,000 men under Gen. Gonzalez are being mobilized for the campaign to the south and that several detachments had left already for San Luis Potosi.

It was reported here that Gen.
Manuel Chan, former Governor of Chihuahua, who was replaced by Gen.
Villa, had been executed on Villa's orders.

Carranza's reply to the Niagara mediators declining to arrange an armistice with the Federalists has resulted in final touches.

CLUES POINT TO SLAYER AND GIRL IN RIVER MYSTERY

Man Hired Boat and Rowed Away with Bundle Like the Sack Found in Water.

HAD SLAB OF CONCRETE.

Disappearance of Schenectady Girl May Be Link in Dismembered Body Case.

SCHENECTADY, June 20.—Two clues were found to-day bearing on the mystery of the woman's torso found yesterday in the Mohawk River. One was the fact that on May 20 a young man hired a skiff at a local boathouse and took aboard a heavy bundle wrapped in a burlap sack and a chunk of concrete picked up on the shore. He rowed downstream and was not seen again, although the skiff was returned to the owner during the night.

The other clue caused the police to investigate the disappearance of Miss May Keads, who lived with her parents on the outskirts of the city.
She has not been seen in a month.

The dismembered body showed evidence of having been in the river for about a month. It was wrapped in a burlap sack and weighted with a twenty-pound slab of concrete.

The only part found thus far was the lower portion of the trunk and the thighs. The woman, so far as could be ascertained, was about twenty-five years old.

RIVER STEAMER SINKS AFTER LANDING 900

Majestic Strikes Crib in Mississippi Near St. Louis and Two Men Are Lost.

ST. LOUIS, June 20.—Thirty-three persons were on board the excursion steamer Majestic when it sank in the Mississippi River near here early to-day, and of these two are unaccounted for, a watchman and a dock-hand.

The others either swam ashore, were taken off in lifeboats, or when the steamer carried six, or found safety on the upper deck, which remained above water.

The steamer was sunk shortly after 500 excursionists had been landed from her.

SNOW IN JUNE? SURE!
HERE IT IS—RIGHT BY US!

Night Watchman Saw It, So He Did, and It Lay Like a Sheet on the Ground.

(Special to The Evening World.)

GREENWICH, Conn., June 20.—The night watchman at Abenethro Brothers' foundry reports that at 2 o'clock this morning a cloud of snow descended over the Hyman Shore section, where many New Yorkers reside.
The snow fell for two minutes so thickly that it covered the ground like a sheet. Stars were shining brightly a moment before.

The Government weather forecast for to-night says "danger of light frost in the country."

Greenwich seems to have got ahead of the forecast.

COLLISION OF BIPLANE WITH BALLOON MAKES AIR SHAM FIGHT REAL

Occupants of Both Machines, After Explosion, Hurlled 1,500 Feet to Earth, Burned and Mangled Before a Crowd.

DELIGHT OF SPECTATORS TURNS TO HORROR IN FLASH

Aeroplane Was Trying to Pass Under the Balloon, but Ran Full Tilt Into It.

VIENNA, June 20.—A mimic battle 1,500 feet in the air between a dirigible balloon carrying seven men and a biplane bearing a pilot and a passenger was suddenly transformed into tragic reality near this city to-day when the biplane struck the balloon and ripped it open. Thousands were watching on a plain below.

There was a terrific explosion of gas. The balloon and the frame of the biplane broke into flames. Side by side, like meteors, the blazing wreckage of the two aircraft shot toward the earth with their human freight, landing on the slope of a mountain. When horrified eyewitnesses reached the wreckage they found, tangled in the mass of hot twisted steel and charred timbers, the mangled remains of nine men.

The victims were Capt. Johann Hauswirth, commander of the dirigible balloon; Lieut. Platts and Hon-ta, pilot and passenger of the biplane; Lieut. Ernest Hofstatter, Ernst and Haidinger, Corporals Hadima and Weber and Engineer Kammerer, comprising the crew of the dirigible.
All were men experienced in aviation.

It may be said of this amazing tragedy that nothing like it ever happened before. Two aeroplanes were in collision in France recently, but this was the first time an aeroplane snatched into a balloon. To add to the horror of the happening it was part of a great military display staged for the entertainment of the people.

The idea was to show a great assemblage of troops and spectators how modern advancement has made possible the extension into the ether of military operations. It was planned for the men in the aeroplane to display, if possible, the superior mobility of that style of air craft over the passive but sturdier dirigibles.

Thousands watched breathlessly the aeroplane, glistering in the sunlight darting about the great balloon like a little active beetle. Thousands saw the two machines come together, saw a puff of smoke, heard a booming roar come out of the sky, and saw the mass of flaming wreckage shoot downward. It was all over in a sub-ute.

GREAT CROWDS TURNED OUT FOR THE DISPLAY.

Extensive military maneuvers were held to-day on the plain between Essendorf and Fischamand.
There is a military aviation station at Fischamand, which is about twelve or fifteen miles from Vienna.
Great crowds turned out to witness the maneuvers.

Taking part in the maneuvers was the army dirigible Koertling. Capt.
Hauswirth and his aides had been up in this balloon many times and had taken many extended voyages.
The Koertling ascended shortly before noon. Capt. Hauswirth chose a position in the air commanding the entire field and took several photographs of the troops. Then he signaled that he was ready to take part in a sham battle with the balloon.

The balloon cut off an air of being
